A TIME OF CHANGE:

Moving an Agency-based Response to Trauma to the Local Community

APRIL 17, 2017; 12:00 pm to 1:30 pm

Mental Health Association in New York State, Inc. (MHANYS) is pleased to bring to you:

A Time of Change: Moving an Agency-based Response to Trauma to the Local Community, will look at the HEARTS and MARC Initiatives in the Capital Region. Participants will get an overview of ACES and a community wide response implemented to address trauma. A representative from CDPHP, a regional managed care provider, involved with these initiatives will share their perspective on the importance of this work.

Presenters Include:

Heather Larkin, PhD, LCSW-R

Anne Fernandez, MD, MS, MBA - Medical Director, CDPHP

Kelly Lauletta, LCSW - NY Regional Director, Community Care Behavioral Health

Background:

In the Capital District region, a project called the HEARTs (Healthy Environments and Relationships That Support) Initiative has taken place over the past several years. The HEARTS Initiative works to prevent and address childhood trauma in the New York State Capital Region and surrounding counties. The University of Albany (UAlbany) has been the lead supporting agency of this project. You could find more information here:

The HEARTS Initiative is part of a broader project called MARC (Mobilizing Action for Resilient Communities) that is sponsored by the Health Federation of Philadelphia. MARC is a learning collaborative of 14 communities across the country actively engaged in building the movement for a just, healthy and resilient world.
