

JOIN US FOR A MEETING NEAR YOU!

Restore Opportunity Now is a statewide coalition of more than 340 human services nonprofit providers. We are calling on the State to make key investments in our workforce and contracts to ensure that our quality services can continue to lift up the communities we serve.

Whether you are an active coalition member, looking to get more involved, or new to the discussion, we invite you to join us at one of our local meetings! We look forward to getting your input on a variety of topics including:

- Recap/Debrief of the FY 2017 budget session
- Our asks and strategy for the coming session
- How to collect impactful stories for our advocacy work
- Advocacy in the current federal climate
