

Mental Health Association in New York State, Inc.

Caregivers: Meeting the Demand of a Changing Workforce

The workforce is ever-changing, and programs across New York State are providing individuals and organizations with the skills and opportunities to meet the needs of their workforce, including their roles as caregivers. Join us to discuss New York State caregiver data, programs, services, and tools available to improve mental health and wellness in the workplace across industries.

Upcoming Webinar

Mental Health Association in New York State, Inc.

December 17th, 1 PM — 2 PM

1 PM — Introduction to MHANYS

1:05 PM — Panel Discussion to Include

Greg Olsen, New York State Office for the Aging

Khamali Brown, Social Enterprise and Training Center

Amanda M. Bastiani, The College of Saint Rose

1:45 PM — Question & Answers

Registration — www.mhanys.org/registration/

This program is brought to you by MHANYS' Workforce Development & Outreach Program (WDOP), funded by the New York State Office of Mental Health.

WDOP is a statewide initiative designed to improve the employment opportunities of individuals living with psychiatric disabilities. This objective is achieved by: educating the community, with a specific focus on employers and the workplace, about the importance of mental health and workforce development.

For more information or questions, email Joelle Monaco, Director of Outreach & Business Engagement, at jmonaco@mhanys.org.

Follow us

MHANYS.org - Facebook MHANYSInc - Twitter @MHAacrossNYS